

Pure Magic Just for You

Co-author a legendary tale starring your little hero. This custom treasure is guarded in our vault—exclusively yours forever. While no other family can buy your child's story, you may order extra copies for the whole kin.

Rest assured: Your child's personalized book is a unique creation that will not be sold to anyone else. Plus, you can order as many copies as you like to share this magic with family and friends!

The Legend's Ingredients

- Tell us your hero's name and silly traits; their beloved toys, songs, or snacks; secrets about the new sibling coming soon; a private letter from your heart to the page; and a picture so our guild of artists can illustrate your star's likeness. Your unique masterpiece stays private, though you can request endless duplicates.
